3 The Bd of Bangalore propose levy of fees at the Chendapura sante on cloth betel leaves and other articles of consumption, which according to the principles enunciated in the Government of India circular no. 2-103 dated 28th September 1877, and Chief Comm's Pro. No. B 2719/79 on the subject of municipal octroi taxation appears to be a town duty levivable only in municipalities. The fee levied in santes is ground rent for the land used for keeping things &c and accordingly fees levied at the santes of Tirukanandy & Santemarahally in the Mysore and Saraspatna in the Kadur Dt are upon shops, carts laden or unladen, bullocks, head loads &c the rates being as noted below:—

Santemarahally.

Sir,

With reference to Government order no 10 396/LBS (86-06)-14 of 7th may 1907 asking me to submit the District Board's resolutions regarding the levy of fees at the Chandapura Santey in the Anekal Taluk, and to report what conveniences are intended to be provided for traders resorting it, I have the honour to state that the Santey is now held on Survey no. 117 in the holding of one Jippiah who is unwilling to part with it. Another Government land near it gomal No. 97- whose extent is 7 acres and 3 guntas is reported to be suitable both for Santey and building purposes and this land may be enclosed with barbed wire fencing at a cost of Rs 728/-

The Taluk Board are of opinion that about Rs 210/- may be realized monthly by levying fees on the marginally noted articles; and that an establishment as mentioned below is necessary to look after the collection work

1 Mutsaddi on Rs 10/- per mensem
2 peons at 5/- = 10/-
Total 20/-

The Taluk Board suggest that this work may be carried on "Amani" by Government for one year, and may further approve of the Amildar's suggestion to have a tiled shed put up on this land at a cost of Rs 422/-

The matter came before the District Board on the 20th February 1908 when it was resolved that there were no objections to the levy of market fees, to the holding of the Santay on Government land and to the providing of the necessary conveniences
